DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 1-3, 5, 7-9, 12-18, and 20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. The instant process claims have been amended to recite various features including the requirement that the process is a multiple batch continuous polymerization process and that the temperature is raised in step 2 is raised at a heating constant rate of 25 to 50 °C/hr. A review of the specification shows that neither limitation has basis in the specification as filed.

The specification does make reference repeated reference to five-batch continuous polymerization process. For example, on page 52 the specification states, "The same polymerization container was used to conduct the same polymerization reaction continuously 5 times (referred to as 5 -batch continuous polymerization). In each batch, no scale was removed." Five batch processes are also referenced on specification pages 53, 54, 57, and Table 1. There is no reference to any other batch process, such as two-batch or twenty-batch. In the response applicant takes the position that the artisan recognizes that the invention described in the specification is not limited to a five batch process, but provides no reasoning of why this is the case. The specification is explicit in every reference to batch processing as being a five-batch process. There is no more general disclosure – or other disclosure at all on batch processing. The claims as presented are not described by the specification as filed.

The claims as presented also do not disclose a constant heating rate of 25 to 50 °C/hr. Applicant takes the position that the specification disclosure would be recognized as a as disclosing a constant heating rate rather than an average rate as asserted by the Examiner. Applicant takes this position because the claims do not state the heating as “on the average”. However, the lack of a specific disclosure is not basis for a positive limitation. In other words, just because the specification does not state how the heating rate is achieved does not permit applicant to claim heating in any manner desired. The disclosure of heating at a rate of 25 to 50 °C includes any type of heating as long as the heating occurs at the prescribed rate. Thus, the heating can be continuous, stepwise, linear, logarithmic, intermittent, or any other manner desired as long as the heating achieves an increase of 25 °C to 50 °C in one hour.

The claims as currently presented are not described by the specification as filed. New matter is present.

Conclusion

The previously applied grounds of rejection are withdrawn based on applicant's amendment to the claims.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO

Art Unit: 1721

MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
